

W. Stephen Williams, Ed.D.

Vice President for Academic Affairs

Professor of Christian Education, Pastoral Ministry, Leadership
Trinity College of the Bible and Theological Seminary

ACADEMIC CREDENTIALS

Ed.D., The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, KY, 2004

Master of Divinity, Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Kansas City, Missouri, 1980

B.A. (Religion) Union University, TN, 1977

CERTIFICATES AND LICENSES

Ordination – Brownsville (TN) Baptist Church, SBC, 1976

Certificate of Residency in Clinical Pastoral Education from Veterans Hospital, Kansas City, 1985

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Adjunct professor, Dyersburg State Community College, 1989-1998

Adjunct instructor of Bible, preaching, Christian leadership, and communications courses at Mid-Continent College, KY, 1999 - 2002

Pastor (full-time) of churches in the Southern Baptist Convention 1980-2004; and part-time pastor from 1976 until 1980

Faculty, Dean of Curriculum Development, Chair and Program Director of Pastoral Ministry Department, Academic Dean, and Vice President for Academic Affairs, Trinity College and Seminary 2003-present

Interim Pastor, First Baptist Church, Boonville, IN fall 2006-present

PROFESSIONAL CONTRIBUTIONS

Papers Presented:

National Association of Professors of Christian Education in Orlando, Florida, October, 2004, "An Analysis of Trans-theoretical Stages of Change in the Formation of a Spiritual Discipline."

Publishing:

Contributor to Mounce's Complete Expository Dictionary of Old and New Testament Words, Zondervan Publishing, 2006.

MEMBERSHIPS AND AFFILIATIONS

Church Membership, First Southern Baptist Church, Evansville, IN

Evangelical Theological Association, 2006-Present

North American Professors of Christian Education, 2001-present

Professional and Organizational Development Network in Higher Education, 2004-present

TEACHING AND RESEARCH INTERESTS

Christian spiritual formation, Teaching and learning, Pastoral ministry, Leadership